English and Music Workshop for Early Years and KS1

Last Friday we enjoyed a wonderful English and live music workshop run by Almudena Viétez and Antonio Casado, parents of the school and creators of Bilingual Beats (www.bilingualbeats.com), a magnificent pedagogical project for teaching languages and music. We spent a fun afternoon with our families singing, dancing, playing and having a delicious snack.

MESSAGE FROM OUR HEAD

On this occasion I would like to direct my message to our High School students, who will be starting their external IGCSE and A-Level exams this week.

Dear High School students,

As we approach the exam period, I want to take a moment to offer you some words of encouragement and guidance. I know that this can be a stressful and challenging time for many of you, but please know that you are not alone. Our school community is here to support you every step of the way.

First and foremost, I want to remind you that you are capable of achieving great things. You have worked hard throughout the year, and now is the time to put that hard work to the test. Remember that success is not just about getting the highest grade, but it's also about doing your personal best.

To prepare for your exams, make sure to review your notes, practice past papers, and seek help from your teachers. It's important to take care of your physical and mental health too, by getting enough sleep, exercise, and relaxation time. Avoid cramming and try to space out your studying, so you can retain information better.

Remember that exam results are just one measure of your success, and they do not define you as a person. Whether you achieve the grades you hoped for or not, what matters most is that you put in your best effort and learn from your mistakes.

Finally, I want to wish you all the best of luck in your exams. Stay focused, stay motivated, and remember that you have the support of your teachers, your classmates, and your school community.

Sincerely,

Mr Wickham

So far already this term I have seen responsibility from our Year 6 students, amazing International Book Day show rehearsals from many classes, kindness and friendship on the playground and great teamwork and support for each other in PE lessons. We are all looking forward to a wonderful term ahead.
